

The German Sustainability Code Declaration of Conformity 2011/12

Allianz has supported the German Sustainability Code since its launch in 2011. The Group's comprehensive reporting follows the stringent reporting standards of the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI A+) and as such, equates to compliance with the Code (according to the section "Declaration of Conformity"). The Allianz Group's Annual and Sustainable Development Reports serve as our Declaration of Conformity 2011/12.

Attached to this document is our GRI Application Level Check Statement as evidence of our fulfillment.

Statement GRI Application Level Check

GRI hereby states that Allianz SE has presented its report "Allianz Group Sustainable Development Report 2011" to GRI's Report Services which have concluded that the report fulfills the requirement of Application Level A+.

GRI Application Levels communicate the extent to which the content of the G3.1 Guidelines has been used in the submitted sustainability reporting. The Check confirms that the required set and number of disclosures for that Application Level have been addressed in the reporting and that the GRI Content Index demonstrates a valid representation of the required disclosures, as described in the GRI G3.1 Guidelines.

Application Levels do not provide an opinion on the sustainability performance of the reporter nor the quality of the information in the report.

Global Reporting Initiative

The "+" has been added to this Application Level because Allianz SE has submitted (part of) this report for external assurance. GRI accepts the reporter's own criteria for choosing the relevant assurance provider.

*The Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) is a network-based organization that has pioneered the development of the world's most widely used sustainability reporting framework and is committed to its continuous improvement and application worldwide. The GRI Guidelines set out the principles and indicators that organizations can use to measure and report their economic, environmental, and social performance.
